

CHURCHES TO JOIN IN THE CENTENNIAL PROGRAM; STATE WIDE REVIVAL FEATURE

20 Years Ago

From The Comanche Chief,
February 4, 1916

Of the $149,895.53 taxes assessed in this county, $144,765.29 had been paid by February 1 with perhaps $600 more not entered on the books.

There were 3568 poll tax receipts issued and 78 exemptions not subject to a poll tax in 1916.

City taxes collected were $13,134.75 out of $14,719.51 assessed. City School taxes paid were $10,766 out of $12,132.07.

New candidates this week are S. J. Hicks for Commissioner of Precinct No. 2, John L. Peters for Tax Assessor, Rufe Fielder for Commissioner Precinct No. 1, and Mrs. J. E. Deely for County Supt.

Peyton Black, 60, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charlie Williams February 2.

The finances of the city are the best within several years. The City is out of debt and there is enough in the treasury to pay the expenses for a year.

A big land deal was closed this week when Mrs. Tom Gaines sold her Hasse land of 1236 acres to J. W. Barker of Kansas. She has bought a 1575 acre ranch in Jackson County.

Walter Bevil went on trial today for the killing of Dink Griffin in North Fort Worth, March 19, 1915.

The Texas Power & Light Company took charge of the local light plant February 1st.

Mrs. A. C. Cathey, teacher at Cotton Grove, has moved to that community and the two assistant teachers, Misses Mabel High and Leo Herring are staying with her.

Marriage licenses: Robert E. Lee and Miss Beanie Simpson; T. L. Green and Miss Stella Terrance.

For spring wear there will be nothing quite so fashionable as the jumper frock of taffeta, serge or light wool. It combines trim lines of the one piece dress with crisp freshness of skirt-bouse.

High Officials To Be Here For O. E. S. Meet

The School of Instruction, Order of the Eastern Star, will convene in Comanche, February 12 at 10 o'clock a. m.

The Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Miles of Jacksonville; the District Deputy Grand Matron, Mrs. Neisnith of Bolton; the Deputy Grand Matron, Miss Morion of Albany, and Grand Exalted, Mrs. Young of Fort Worth will be present.

All members of the O. E. S. are urged to be present according to Mrs. C. C. Hampton, Worthy Matron.

Girls Cage Tourney Is To Be Replayed

Comvn girls won the County Basketball Tournament played at the Dublin Gym last week-end but because a Comvn player was judged ineligible at a meeting of the County Committee at Comanche Monday, the tournament will be played over beginning Monday afternoon at Dublin at one o'clock.

The tournament will be played in a single bracket instead of a double bracket as followed last week.

Last week's games were featured by a two point victory of Comvn over Beattie in the preliminaries. Beattie defeated Hasse in the finals by a score of approximately 2 to 1. Teams entering were De Leon, Kustine, Proctor, Comvn, Hasse, Pettit, Newburg, Sidney and Sine Sings.

Robinson Springs won the Rural Championship and its title will be allowed. Other teams to enter in this division were Energy, Oliver Springs, Wilson, Lamkin, Fairview and Jakehamon.

Government

"We can be thankful that peoples in all walks of life realize more and more that government is a living force in their lives. They understand that the value of their government depends on the interest they display in it and the knowledge they have of its policies."

—President Roosevelt.

The Protestant Churches of Texas are to have an important part this year in the Texas Centennial Celebration and Sam Braswell, Paducah, Texas editor, has been chosen as publicity director for that phase of work.

In addition to a series of Statewide revivals, church exhibits, etc., a series of weekly comments on the scriptures are being released.

An article by Mr. Braswell explaining the part that the churches are to play in the celebration follows:

A striking feature of the Centennial Celebration in Texas during 1936 is the Interdenominational revival effort all over the state. One of the slogans of the movement is "The Battle of 1936." The co-operation churches, Methodist, Presbyterian U. S., Presbyterian U. S. A., Nazarene, Baptist, Episcopal, and Christian are laying plans for as desperate and vigorous battle in the Centennial year as did the courageous Texans in 1836. The different churches are setting goals for an increase in membership of 10 percent or more. The Baptist has a goal of 52,000 additions by baptism, and other denominations have special definite goals.

Each local church in the state will arrange its own battle lines according to five major objectives worked out by the Texas Interdenominational Committee as follows: 1. A goal of 25 percent increase in church attendance at worship and instruction services.

2. Each church in Texas is to hold a revival meeting using its own denominational policy and plan. 3. A special committee in Dallas is arranging for special religious services to be held in the Centennial grounds as soon as possible, the responsibility for these services to be assumed by the demonstrations in turn. 4. Fifteen One Day Centennial Revival Rallies will be held in the following towns: Sherman, Tyler, Texarkana, Houston, Harlingen, San Antonio, Austin, Waco, San Angelo, Abilene, Lubbock, Amarillo, Wichita Falls, Ft. Worth, and Dallas, on March 9-13. These will serve as mass inspirational Meetings in behalf of the spirit (Continued On Last Page)

Oil Well Test At Gustine

Hon. James M. Bolding, who is widely interested in oil development projects in the state, was in Gustine recently, and secured a picture of the derrick over the test well that is being drilled about two miles southwest of the little city.

The history of the well is promising. Oil was discovered by a farmer who was drilling for water. The derrick was erected and equipment set up for drilling for "black gold" and at a depth of some 150 feet a showing of oil in small quantities encourages the drillers to go deeper.

Mr. Bolding is not interested in the test other than in a general way as an observer of the possible development of a field in that part of the country.

Three School For Farmers Next Week

Three important meetings for the farmers of Comanche County have been set for next week according to County Agent J. A. Barton who said that a terracing school would be held at the Columbus Bowman farm three miles south of Comanche on the Newburg road Monday afternoon.

Tuesday, George W. Barn's, a beef cattle specialist from A. & M. College will hold a one-day field meet at the John Burton farm near Newburg. The meeting will begin at 2 p. m. and will be held at the court house if the weather is too bad to meet at the Burton farm.

Thursday J. F. R. Burroughs of A. & M. will hold two meetings in the county for those interested in orchards. The first meeting will be at the S. D. West home just south of the De Leon city limits and the other meeting will be at 4:30 p. m. at the Willis Robinson farm 3 miles north of Comanche on the Beattie road.

The terracing school at the Bowman farm will convene at 1:30 under the direction of M. R. Bentley, A. & M. Extension Engineer, who is a pioneer in demonstrating terracing work in the county.

All farmers who are interested are urged to attend the above meetings, Mr. Barton said.

Midsummer Night's Dream Coming Tues.

"A Midsummer Night's Dream" scheduled for the Majestic last Tuesday was postponed until next Tuesday.

R. L. McCoy who is here representing Warner Brothers and helping the management of the Majestic Theatre with "A Midsummer Night's Dream," says the reason for the postponement was that the picture is so new that it was impossible to get a print of the "Dream" from Hollywood, but will have it here for opening Feb. 11th, as they are bringing it to Dallas by aeroplane. "A Midsummer Night's Dream" has only been shown in four towns in Texas, and the people of Comanche are indeed lucky in getting this picture. At admission prices under what other towns have paid, and it will not be shown at cheaper prices for the next year.

Manager Carter is to be congratulated in bringing this show to Comanche so that his patrons can see this picture and at a smaller cost than is charged elsewhere.

Comanche's Majestic Theatre will have a real Hollywood opening Tuesday night, Feb. 11th—"A Midsummer Night's Dream"—lights, motion pictures made, everything but the stars in person. You will see them on the screen.

Mr. McCoy, who is co-operating with the Majestic management in putting on Warner Bros. big production "A Midsummer Night's Dream," will make mention pictures of the opening of the matinee and night performances.

Mr. McCoy was in Hollywood during the making of "Dream" and says it was two years in the making, costing over three million dollars.

The people of Comanche are getting a real treat, as this picture was run in Hollywood for $10 per seat.

You will be pleased with this entrancing feature, the like of which seldom comes to small towns. Be sure to see it.

FEDERAL TIRE

OFFICIALS HERE

Jack Clinton of Springfield, Mass., vice-president of Federal Tire & Rubber Co., and C. C. Fletcher of Houston, Southern zone manager of the firm, spent Wednesday with the Dudley Bros. in Comanche, and with Gail P. Dudley visited in the Dudley Bros. territory.

The Comanche Indians wasted no part of the buffalo. They used the meat for food, the brains and liver for softening leather, the horns and skull for ladles and vessels; shoulder blades for hoes, picks and knives; the tendons for bow strings; the tail hair for ropes and belts, and the hides for bridges, saddles, moccasins, bags, etc.

Poll Tax Payments Show An Increase

There had been issued 4080 poll tax receipts up to Thursday morning with some unopened letters in the office which were mailed prior to February 1 and which were supposed to contain money for poll tax payments.

Two hundred and thirteen exemptions were issued to those who became 21 since January 1, 1935.

Poll tax payments a year ago were approximately 2800 and 3800 in 1934. Property tax payments also showed an increase, but total figures were not available Thursday.

Highway No. 10 West To Be Widened Soon

State Highway No. 10 West from Comanche to the Brown County line will be widened from an 80 foot right-of-way to 100 feet according to an order recently passed by the Commissioners Court.

The Court took action after the State Highway Department said that the road would not be hard surfaced until a 100 foot right-of-way was secured.

Sam Lewis, Commissioner of Precinct No. 2 is purchasing agents for the right-of-way and already has promises of about half the land. The average price paid the land owners is $10 for pasture land and $25 for the land in cultivation, Mr. Lewis said.

Mr. Lewis said that he is anxious to get the contracts closed out as soon as possible so that the road will be in shape when the State Highway Department is ready to let the contract for hard surfacing.

The State intends to put the road in the same condition as the sector east of Comanche which is now being treated with a triple asphalt topping.

Teachers To Brady; No School Today

The Comanche Public School children will have a holiday today while the entire faculty is attending the annual Mid-Texas Teachers Association at Brady.

The two-day educational meet is scheduled to open this morning at nine o'clock.

Superintendent J. D. Bramlette will discuss the Educational Progress in Texas, stressing progress in class room work and supervised study. Leading educators of the state will appear on the program.

S. O. S. is but a signal and stands for no words.

From $40,000 to $50,000 will be spent in Comanche during 1936 for the erection of new residences, R. E. Sikes, District Manager of the Federal Housing Act estimated Tuesday after an all day conference with Hilron Burks, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Fifteen men and women have already signified their intention to build under the government financing plan, Mr. Burks stated.

The money can be borrowed from the Government through the State National Bank at a low rate of interest and paid back monthly over a number of years.

The average monthly charge will be around $14.00 per month per thousand and will include the following: One-twelfth of the annual taxes on the place, one-twelfth of the annual insurance, a charge of 1-2 of 1 per cent service charge, 1-2 of 1 per cent mutual mortgage charge and simple interest at 5 percent, and a partial payment on the principal.

A loan of up to 80 per cent of the appraised value of the proposed building and lot will be made on urban residential property.

Those interested in securing a loan are asked to get in touch with Mr. Burks.

Local W. O. W. Meet Draws Record Crowd

The largest crowd to attend a W. O. W. meeting within ten years at Comanche was at the local Camp room Monday night for a district meet and a rally.

One hundred and twenty-five Comanche County Woodmen in addition to visitors from Cisco were present to see a class of 14 initiated and to hear addresses by District Manager Kirk of Abilene and District Deputies Wages and Brooks of San Angelo and National Delegate S. C. Findley of Brownwood.

The Cisco drill team put on the degree work and all officers of the Cisco lodge were present. County representatives included delegates from De Leon, Sidney and Cross Roads.

Local Drug Store Leads Five States In Hosiery Sales

The Service Drug Store of Comanche led all stores in towns of similar size in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Kansas in the sale of Airmaid Hosiery in 1935 according to C. C. McCaugh, President of the McCaugh Hosiery Mills, manufacturers of the products.

Clarence Huett, proprietor of the local store, received a letter from the president of the hosiery mill congratulating him on the success he is making of the business.

DON'T KILL THE BIRDS, COMANCHE LADY SAYS

The small boys have always killed robins in my yard as well as all over Comanche, writes Mrs. C. P. St. Clair, who is a great lover of birds and animals.

To kill a robin is a violation of both State and Federal law and is punishable in State courts by a fine of $10.00 to $100.00.

Bird lovers in Comanche report that there are an unusual number of robins in Comanche now, and that boys are shooting airguns and "nigger shoovers" at the red breasts. Many of the boys do not know that it violates the law to kill the birds.

However, the law is the law and must be enforced. If boys insist on killing these birds, they lay their parents liable to fines up to the $100 limit with possible prosecution in Federal courts, the State Game Warden warns.

Texas Pension Districts Are Named Monday

AUSTIN, Feb. 3. (UP)—Twenty administration districts for handling old age assistance grants were announced today by Orville S. Carpenter, who will be administrator when the law goes into effect soon.

Carpenter said that two of the 20 district supervisors had not been named and that only eight cities had been designated as district headquarters. Office space and equipment have been furnished by the eight cities selected.

Comanche County is in District No. 8. The supervisor for this district has not been named nor has the city for headquarters been selected.

A list of the counties in this district follows: Bosque, Comanche, Coryell, Ellis, Erath, Hamilton, Hill, Hood, Johnson, Lampasas, McLennan, Mills and Somervell.

Drilling On Hasse Test Is Renewed

Drilling operations were renewed Monday on the shallow test near Hasse, according to C. G. Kibben, independent drilling contractor, who was in Comanche recently. Kibben said that drilling had been slowed up by sickness among employees and by bad weather, but that a depth of 255 feet had been reached. Drilling will continue to 1100 feet.

The test is located 1 1/2 miles southwest of Hasse. Six test wells have already been put down in the locality at various times in the past, but no producing well has been brought in. However, experts say that the structure indicates that oil in paying quantities will be found. Kibben says that the test is loggign high, and that he feels confident of finding a shallow field.

Boys Cage Tourney At Dublin Today

The Comanche County Boys Basketball Tournament will get underway at Dublin this morning for a two days meet.

All the larger schools of the county are expected to be represented and the tournament will be played in two classes, B. and Rural.

The championship of Class A schools will be determined by a three-game series between Comanche and De Leon the first of which was scheduled to be played at Comanche Thursday.

Later the championship will be determined between the winners of the three classes.

CAGLE RE-ELECTED BROWNWOOD COACH

Pat Cagle, former Comanche High School Principal and athletic coach, was re-elected coach of the Brownwood High School Monday night.

The Brownwood Lions football team under the direction of Cagle for the first time last fall, had the best season they have enjoyed since entering Class A competition about eight years ago.

AUSTIN, Feb. 4 (UP)—Texas applicants for old age assistance were told today by Director Orville S. Carpenter how to be ready for prompt action on their applications when the law becomes effective Feb. 14.

Applicants will be able to obtain blanks in their own locality Feb. 14. Whether these will be available generally had not been determined.

Forms to be sent out may be filed as soon as they are filled in with the required information.

Must Describe Property

Because $5,000 worth of property disqualifies a single person and $7,500 a married person, applicants will be required to show how much real and personal property they own, if the personal property is worth more than $1,000.

Applicants must be prepared to describe all personal property including jewelry, furniture, automobiles, and livestock, in addition to real estate. They should know the original purchase price and date of purchase; description by lot and block number or similar designation as carried on tax rolls; amount of property tax rendered; name of lienholder and amount of mortgage due as well as the equity of the owner.

The date and amount of liens will facilitate applications, Carpenter added.

Besides the list of property owned, the applicant should have a description of property disposed of during the last two years, giving date, purchaser, and price.

Must Show Earnings

To establish satisfactorily their income status, applicants should show all earnings for two years preceding the application. The law permits an applicant $360 yearly income; for a married couple $720. Income includes revenue from all sources.

H. L. Stewart Heads Chamber Commerce

H. L. Stewart was elected President of the Comanche Chamber of Commerce at the annual board of directors meeting Tuesday. Homer Wilhelm was named Treasurer.

Hilton Burks was re-employed as Secretary for an indeterminate period.

A progressive program for 1936 is being outlined according to Mr. Stewart who said that later a mass meeting of the citizens might be called to discuss plans for the year.

The returns of the election for the board of directors as canvassed and the following 12 were declared elected.

William C. Chilton, T. J. Williams, J. R. Eanes, Walter Durham, E. E. Anthony, G. T. Dudley, John E. Hoff, H. L. Stewart, Homer Wilhelm, Dr. J. Gray, J. C. Wilkerson, J. D. Grellette.

DOLE SYSTEM IS TO STOP HERE APRIL 1

The direct relief or Dole system will stop at Comanche April 1 according to an announcement. There are now 1,000 families representing 500 people on the dole here.

History of Local P. O. Given By J. R. Eanes

The first Post Office was established at Comanche 75 years ago according to J. R. Eanes who has furnished the Chief with a short history of the office.

Mr. Eanes said that the first postmaster was killed by the Indians and another was hanged and the others "escaped."

The sketch as given by Mr. Eanes follows:

A United State Post Office was established in Comanche in 1860 and on May 31st James H. Tankersly was appointed postmaster. There is no record of the office here during the Civil War. The office was discontinued January 23rd, 1867, and reestablished April 27th, 1869, the following is a list of postmasters from April 1869 to and including 1929, with their term of service:

Thomas J. Nabors, April 27, 1869 to April 18, 1872.

Joseph G. Hardin, April 18, 1872 to April 3, 1873.

Nathan Yarbrough, April 3, 1872 to April 4, 1881.

D. A. Campbell, April 4, 1881 to July 10, 1885.

R. M. Garner, July 10, 1885 to April 20, 1889.

Berch Taylor, April 20, 1889 to November 15, 1890.

Arthur L. Kempner, November 15, 1890 to October 28, 1893.

A. L. Hamilton, October 28, 1893 to June 17, 1897.

Elisha B. Atterbury, June 17, 1897 to January 23, 1906.

J. F. McCarty, January 23, 1906 to April 5, 1910.

George L. Sullivan, April 5, 1910 to March 18, 1914.

F. J. Reese, March 18, 1914 to December 1, 1917.

J. M. Rieger, December 1, 1917 to August 15, 1919.

Wm. H. Carpenter, August 15, 1919 to November 1, 1921.

J. C. Henderson, November 1, 1921 to February 14, 1923.

Murt J. Sullivan, February 14, 1923 to June 28, 1929 (died in office.)

D. C. Dingus was appointed acting postmaster to succeed Mr. Sullivan and served until George Black was appointed in February, 1930 for a four year term. Mr. Eanes has been postmaster since the expiration of Mr. Black's term.

State Health Dept. Urges Vaccination

Austin, Jan. 28.—Smallpox epidemics would never occur if every one, especially children, could be effectively vaccinated, stated Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. At present there is an increasing lack of vaccination among school children and this constitutes a menace.

Modern safeguards have removed every legitimate objection to vaccination. The virus is made from calves, and consequently is incapable of transmitting human blood diseases. Among some ten million vaccinations performed in the Philippine Islands, there was no loss of life or limb or demonstrable injury to health.

A primary vaccination with one successful revaccination will, as a rule, protect throughout life from the milder forms of smallpox, but this is not true in the severer types of this disease. Therefore, be vaccinated and revaccinated at least every five years, so that you will have the greatest protection possible and the least chance of being sick. Revaccination should also be done after each time you have been near a known case of smallpox, for you know that the old vaccination protects if the new one fails to "take." Vaccination is not to be feared but rather to be sought as the only safe, positively harmless and absolutely certain safeguard against smallpox. See your doctor today and be sure that you are protected.

SYNOPSIS

Captain Michael Andrews, of a British armored car division, on the Eastern Front, is captured by Kurdish irregulars, but rescued when the supposed leader of the Kurds turns out to be a British secret service agent who calls himself "Smith." When they are steering the Butcher, an Armenian tribe against which the Kurds are advancing, to a place of safety across the mountains, Andrews battles with Smith when he sees him kill Cullen, an enemy spy, in cold blood. Andrews' leg is broken and he is sent to a clearing hospital. Smith disappears.

CHAPTER IV

After weeks of suffering in the mountains and at the Medical Clearing Station Andrews eventually reached the British hospital in Cairo. He was there for months, for his broken leg necessitated an operation. When he was well enough to be up and about again his injury still caused him to limp badly.

During his stay at the hospital, Andrews had fallen in love with his nurse, pretty blonde Rosemary Hayden. On the day he was to be dismissed he cornered the girl who had been trying to evade him, and followed her along the hospital corridor as she delivered medical supplies to the various wards.

"Didn't you get my message?" he demanded.

"Yes. 'Noon. . . same place. garden. . . urgent,'" she teased.

"Why didn't you come?"

"Was it really so urgent?" She picked up a tray and entered a room as she spoke. Andrews poked around the medical supplies until he caught the eye of a stern-faced nurse.

Then he limped away to come back as the girl returned.

"Yet, it was urgent," he persisted. "I'm well. They're kicking me out of here today. I suppose I should be glad," he added after a pause.

"It's your fault that I'm not."

"You really ought to go now," said the girl.

"Not unless you promise to dine with me tonight."

"But I can't. Nurses are not allowed."

"At the Terrace Hotel," he continued implacably. "Please. Couldn't you try?"

"Possibly," she smiled, as she picked up another tray.

That evening found them seated face to face across a table in the dining room of the Hotel Terrace. They had just finished dinner and Rosemary was looking about her, enjoying the forbidden surroundings and the pleasant music.

"Nurses aren't allowed to do this sort of thing, you know, even with heroes," she smiled. "They're not allowed to wear evening clothes or dine in public with officers. Or dance."

Taking the hint, he rose and they swept out on the dance floor. But a few moments later, while the orchestra was in the midst of playing "If You Were the Only Girl in the World," Andrews stopped.

"Let's go outside for a while," he suggested. "Leg's hurting."

But on the balcony, in the brilliant moonlight, he confessed that his leg was all right after all.

"I was lying," he admitted. "I wanted to be alone with you."

back against his arms. But only for a moment. . . then she ceased to resist. Very slowly, her arms came up until one hand rested on his shoulder while the other pressed the back of his head.

"It's my fault! My own fault!" She cried at last. Tears were in her eyes as well as her eyes. "Will you please take me back now?" She put one white hand to her forehead as he released her.

"No! I want to know what on earth's upset you."

"I'll tell you, but I've got to humiliate myself to do it. I was miserable because I've let myself fall in love with you." She turned and started quickly away, but he caught her arm.

"What do you want from me?" she cried desperately.

"You," he answered. "Miss Hayden. . . may I present Mr. Andrews? He wants to marry you."

"Didn't you get my message?" he demanded

"Oh. . . I see." The girl seemed suddenly frightened. "I think we'd better go back."

"No."

"Please, Michael."

"Why are you so. . . so tragic suddenly?" he asked, barring her way.

"Michael, I hope you. . ."

"I hope you haven't misunderstood," he finished for her.

"Michael, I'm afraid you're. . ."

"I'm afraid you've taken too much for granted," he teased.

Then, catching her almost roughly by the shoulder, he added, "No, that's not true, and you know it."

His arms tightened their hold. He bent his head and kissed her, holding her powerless against him. A small, stifled sound came from her and she resisted him, straining

He was trying to lighten the situation.

"My dear," she murmured as if to herself as she stared at him, intensely moved. She put out a hand as if to touch him, then let it drop to her side. "My dear. You can't have me. . . I'm not my own. If I were. . ."

She broke off abruptly.

"What do you mean?" he demanded harshly.

"I'm. . . I'm rather a fraud," she stammered. "You see, I'm married."

"Oh. . . I see!" His face became wooden and expressionless and he spoke with an elaborately casual tone. "Well, that, so to speak, is that! Did you say you had to be getting back?"

PICKFAIR PARTIES TO BE BROADCAST OVER CBS EVERY TUESDAY

Mary Pickfords famous parties at Pickfair, with Miss Pickford in the real-life role of charming hostess, will be presented over the Columbia network in the first series of broadcasts ever to originate in the drawing room of her Beverly Hills mansion and social Mecca of the seen colony. The broadcasts will be heard over the nationwide CBS chain each Tuesday from 9:00 to 9:30 P. M. Central Standard Time, beginning February 11, and will be sponsored by the Community Public Service Company in cooperation with the National Ice Industry.

In the programs, entitled "Parties at Pickfair," America's Sweetheart will be the hostess at informal gatherings in her own drawing room. Her invited guests are to be Hollywood personalities and, figuratively, the radio audience which will be made to feel at home in the spacious mansion. Each week Miss Pickford will arrange a program of entertainment by stars of the motion picture world. The music will be supplied by Al Lyons and his Coconut Grove Orchestra and vocal chorus.

NEWBURG CAGE TEAM WINS

(By William Gandy)
The Newburg All-Stars defeated the Blanket team at Blanket Tuesday night, 31 to 23. Both teams played a clean fast game. Blanket recently won the Rising Star Tournament and Newburg defeated the Comanche Indians recently 37 to 12. In the contest with Blanket, Dick Hicks was high point man for Newburg with 19 points while Gandy was second with 9 points. Newburg lineup was Hicks, Gandy, Wilhelm, Foreman, and G. Wilhelm.

It pays to meet Joe Louis. Retzlaff stepped out to meet him and in less than three minutes got a knockdown and $9,800.00.

How Cardui Helps Women To Build Up

Cardui stimulates the appetite and improves digestion, helping women to get more strength from the food they eat. As nourishment is improved, strength is built up, certain functional pains go away and women praise Cardui for helping them back to good health. . . . Mrs. Q. M. Retzlaff, of Elkhart, W. Va., writes: "After the birth of my last baby, I did not seem to get my strength back. I took Cardui again and was soon sound and well. I have given it to my daughters and recommend it to other ladies." . . . Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit you, consult a physician.

Pleased Customers

Users of Natural Gas wear a smile of complete satisfaction these winter days because of their freedom from fuel worries. At no time of the year is the convenience of Natural Gas more appreciated than in the "dead of winter."

GAS IS CONVENIENT:—

Kindling a fire with wood on a cold February morning, trying to cook with wood that may be wet, or the slower kerosene burner method, are some of the inconveniences that Natural Gas has overcome.

GAS IS CLEAN:—

Gas is clean, free from soot or smoke if burners are properly adjusted, and as economical as any good fuel. Remember, if your gas bill is larger in January than the same would be true if you used any other fuel, such as wood, coal, or kerosene.

GAS IS HEALTHFUL:—

The supply is constant, maintaining an even heat, preventing fluctuation of temperatures which is one of the principal sources of colds.

USE GAS—IT IS YOUR BEST FUEL

SAYS HE FAVORS TOWNSEND PLAN

A subscribed to the Comanche Chief says that many people do not understand the real purpose of the Townsend Pension Plan. Its sole purpose is not to help the aged, he says, but to promote the circulation of money and relieve the unemployment situation.

He handed in the following clipping from an Eastland paper: It is said that ten million people belong to Townsend Clubs and the next six months promise to double the numbers.

Every citizen should study the plan. Its advocates claim it will break the depression, bring back prosperity and give employment to every man and woman in America. Its primary purpose is not, as is generally supposed, to aid the old people, but to force large sums of money into immediate circulation and to keep it circulating.

Its advocates claim that poverty and unemployment cause nine tenths of the crime in the United States. By taking four or five millions of old people out of industry, retiring them on a pension of two hundred dollars per month, will provide openings for four or five millions of idle and unemployed. It is claimed that of the eight or ten millions who will receive the pension, at least one half will give employment to others in the unemployed. That the forced spending of two billion dollars per month, will aid impetus to every business and every industry, and that private employers will be forced to employ millions of men.

"THE LAST OUTPOST"

CHAPTER V

As Rosemary turned and started to run blindly from the balcony, he stopped her once more.

"Sit here," he commanded, forcing her down on a bench. "I want to know all about this before I let you go. Where's your husband?"

"I don't know," she sobbed.

"Does that mean you've left him?"

"No."

"Did he leave you?" The girl shook her head.

"Are you mad?" "Am I? What is this nonsense?"

"I was married just before the war," she answered huskily.

"When it broke out, John was sent away on intelligence work. Since then I've had no word from him in three years. If I hadn't turned to nursing, I think I'd have gone mad. Then I got . . . sort of numb . . . about everything. But now . . . but now . . ."

She looked at Andrews and bit her lip to stop it trembling.

"You poor child." All his harshness gone, he looked at her tenderly.

"Do you love him?"

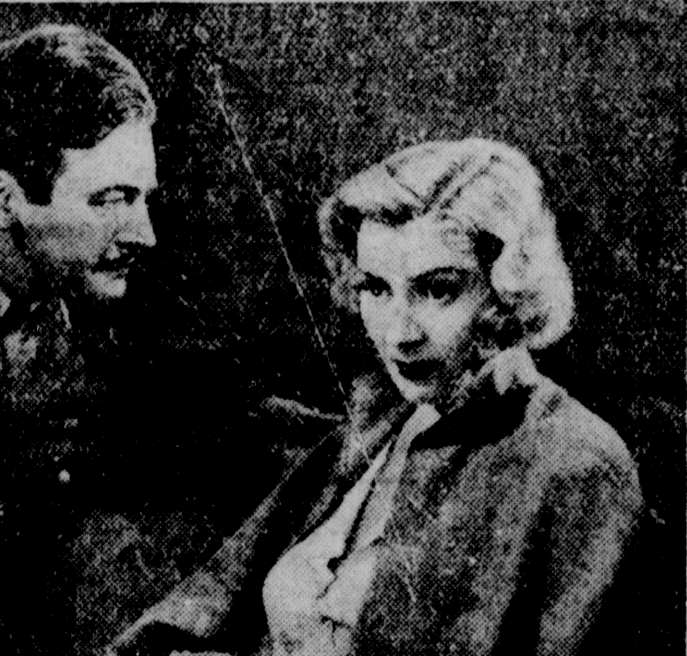

"I don't know," she answered, putting her hand to her head.

"Did you love him?"

"I don't know that either. I mean . . . I wonder if I can explain? I mean that John was so completely in love with me that my own feelings were sort of swamped in his. He's . . . a very strange person. I . . . oh, do you understand?"

"I think so," he answered slowly. "Now, do you love me?"

"Yes." Her voice was calm with assurance.

"Tell me you're better," he pleaded as he sat beside the divan on which she was resting.

She hurried to the office to find not the matron, but a man standing there with his back toward her. He turned as she entered and she looked into the glowing eyes of her husband—John Stevenson.

Although he was clean shaven, except for a small mustache, and was dressed in the British uniform, he was the same man whom Michael Andrews had known as Smith in the Armenian desert.

"Rosemary," he said softly, an almost fanatical gleam in his eyes as he stepped forward to greet her.

All the blood drained from the girl's face. She opened her mouth as if to speak, but no sound came forth. She put a hand to her forehead, swayed and would have fallen had not Stevenson leaped forward and caught her in his arms.

When Rosemary recovered she discovered that her husband had arranged for her to take leave at

In the meantime Andrews had become worried when Rosemary did not keep her appointment with him. He hurried to the hospital and talked to one of the nurses who had been her best friend.

"It's awfully odd, Captain Andrews," Nurse Rowlands told him. "I can't make head nor tail of it. Rosemary's got special leave! Six months! And she's gone without saying good-bye to anyone."

"Gone?" Andrews was aghast and bewildered.

"Yes. And even Matron's orderly doesn't know anything."

"I see." His shoulders sagged. "Well . . . thanks awfully, nurse."

"She's sure to be writing to you," Nurse Rowlands assured him brightly as he turned and limped from the ward.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NEWS

The Workers' Council consisting of all the officers and leaders of our church held its monthly meeting on Tuesday evening. In the absence of the President, Mrs. J. B. Alleorn, Mrs. Elbert Stewart was appointed to the chair and most efficiently handled the business of the evening. After a brief devotional on the power of the Bible reports were given from the various church and Sunday School departments which showed a most encouraging growth and plans were made for the ensuing month's work. The Council is most encouraged by the splendid spirit being shown by the Business Woman's Circle of the Auxiliary, under the leadership of Miss Mary Hutchison. Miss Minnie Cunningham was elected as the teacher of the "Timothean Bible Class" of Adult Young People which has recently been organized. And many constructive plans were formulated for the carrying of the church work.

The Timothean Class which Mrs. Hazel has been teaching has been divided to meet a recognized need for a class intended to be strictly for the boys and girls of high school age. Miss Minnie Cunningham will take over the Timothean Bible Class and Mrs. Hazel has been appointed to form and organize this new class limited to Young People of High School age. We cordially invite any of our community young people of high school age to join this newly formed class.

Following a splendid concert of sacred music by the Proctor High School Violin Class, Rev. Hazel preached at Proctor Sunday evening using for his subject, "Are We Crucifying the Invisible Christ Today?" Rev. Hazel conducts services at Proctor regularly the first Sunday evening of each month.

On Monday evening the Business Women's Circle met at the church on a bitter cold evening with an attendance of eight. Mary Hutchison, chairman of this Circle called the meeting to order following which the pastor brought the first of a series of short lectures on "The Organization, Plan and Purpose of our Women's Work." This series will continue each Monday evening during the month of February. Unusual interest is being shown by this fine group of younger women and they are one of the strongest units in our church organization. Miss Ruth James will lead devotional at the next meeting.

The pastor will preach the second of the sermon series on some pictures of God at the 11 a. m. service. This Sunday, God Is Like That—A Judge. Subject "Higher Accounting." At the evening service he will continue the sermons on character studies of the Apostles. This Sunday evening, Sermon Subject: "Thomas, The Man of Moods." The Deacons, the past week, hired "Pug" McMillen as the church janitor and henceforth our members may feel assured of finding the church comfortably warm for each service. Our new janitor will see that the church fires are lighted well in advance of the service.

HARMONY METHODIST

We are expecting to meet with every member of old Harmony Church next Sunday; Why not? If you have got "out of the habit" stop, look and listen, and then resolve to break that bad "habit" with the good resolution of coming to church. You will feel better, and life will have more charms for you. I believe you will enjoy better health. Some Methodist seem to rave good health six days out of the week, but have a habit of getting sick on Saturday night or Sunday morning. Brother, you need to take the "Church Cure." Come on to church next Sunday and get your medicine. Hear your pastor, he has a message for you at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday School at 10 a. m.

Let every officer and teacher be present and on time, ready to go, promptly at 10 o'clock. An invitation is given to everybody to attend these services. Come early in order to get a seat. — George G. Smith, Minister.

DUDLEY BROS.

COMANCHE GAIL—TOM—ELTOS TEXAS

Pretty Girl Offers To Join Shovel Gang

Eighteen-year-old Patricia Kelly, petite, blond, and easy to look at, recently introduced herself at Detroit headquarters of the Works Progress Administration by demanding a job as foreman of a pick and shovel gang.

She was within her rights, too. Under the rules, one member of a family has a right to take the place of another who has been called to work and is ill.

"Here is an order, calling father to work," she said. "He can't come. He is going to the hospital. Mother is in the hospital now and I have two brothers and a sister to look out for. I read in the paper that one member of a family could substitute for another in WPA work. Let me have my dad's place."

"As foreman of a pick and shovel gang working in the street," gasped the official.

The girl nodded, suppressing her tears, her handkerchief tightly knotted in her hand.

"If you don't want to make me a foreman," she suggested, "just give me a shovel."

"What experience have you ever had with a shovel?" asked the official quizzically.

Patricia was not in a mood for joking.

"I've often shoveled coal into our furnace," she insisted.

"You had better go home and wait for an opening in a woman's project," the official advised.

"I need work now," the girl protested, "and I believe that I am entitled to it under your rules."

"Since you insist," admitted the official, "I'll have to talk this over with somebody."

The official conference brought Mrs. Cecil R. Chittenden, Michigan State Director of Federal Writers' Projects, on the scene. One glance from Patricia's blue eyes, and she capitulated.

"I bet she can do more than shovel coal into a furnace," Mrs. Chittenden ventured.

Yes, Patricia could. She was a graduate of Fordson High School and had often contributed to the "Tower Tribune," the school publication. Furthermore, she was a very good typist.

"Would you just as soon pound a typewriter for me as use a pick and shovel in the street?" asked the State Director.

"I'd rather," the visitor agreed.

"Then, I have a job for you," announced Mrs. Chittenden.

Patricia was overjoyed.

"Now, I can bring my mother home and see that my father gets hospital treatment," she declared after the details of her employment had been fixed up.

Patricia may not write original articles for the American Guide, the Government's forthcoming five volume travel handbook, but she will have an important part in preparing the perfected copy of the writers after the state headquarters editors have made their corrections.

The Kelly family lives at 7319 Neck Avenue in Dearborn, near Detroit. Mrs. Kelly is suffering from a serious illness and has been receiving treatment at the Henry Ford Hospital. Edward Kelly, the father, who has been out of work three years, has a stomach malady. The children in the family beside Patricia are William, 16; Robert, 14, and Betty Lou, 16.

Proctor FFA Gives Review of 1936 Plans

Members of the Proctor F. F. A. Chapter have set up their program of work for the year to supplement their vocational agriculture program of instruction and supervised farm program.

Objectives in their program are in line with the State and District program of Future Farmers with additional objectives as the local Chapter wants to carry out.

The objectives are worked out on the basis of the "purpose" of the Future Farmers of America, and include:

1. Development of farm leadership.
2. Strengthening the confidence of farm boys in themselves and what they are doing.
3. Creating more interest in the intelligent choice of farming occupations.
4. Creating and nurturing a love for country life.
5. Encouraging co-operative effort.
6. Promote thrift.
7. Promoting and improving scholarship.
8. Encouraging organized recreational activities and advancing the cause of Vocational Agriculture in High Schools.

The Chapter program for 1935-36 includes the following 20 objectives:

1. Keep money in the Treasury all the time.
2. Go on annual fishing trip.
3. Members attend Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth.
4. Hold a father and son banquet in January.
5. 92 percent of members pay their F. F. A. dues.
6. Enter teams in District contest.
7. Promote an all high school party.
8. Enter teams in State contests.
9. Keep scrap book on all publicity.
10. Train members in parliamentary procedure.
11. Enter public speaking contest.
12. Officers attend three officers training schools.
13. Help government agencies in putting over AAA and Soil Conservation service program.
14. 50 per cent of last year's Greenhands raised to the degree of Future Farmer.
15. Send two delegates to the State Convention.
16. Two per cent of Future Farmers raise to Lone Star Farmer degree.
17. Each officer win certificate of merit in parliamentary procedure.
18. Reporter write news item each week.
19. Make repairs on home buildings.
20. Each officer own an F. F. A. Manual.

Mrs. J. D. Allen Buried At Newburg

Funeral rites for Mrs. J. D. Allen of the Tater Hill Mountain community, who died in a Brown-vied hospital January 29th, were held at Newburg last Friday with Rev. Gordon Barrett officiating.

Mrs. Allen, who was Minnie Lee Tate before her marriage to J. D. Allen August 6, 1910, was reared in Comanche County.

In addition to two step-children, Coleman and Clyde Allen of Arizona, five sisters and three brothers, and many other relatives.

She was a member of the Baptist Church.

New Cardboard Feeders Popular

Afford Economical and Sanitary Method of Feeding Chicks

What has formerly been a heavy expense to poultry raisers, the providing of proper feeding equipment, is now partially overcome through the use of cardboard feeders for chicks during the first few weeks, according to Mr. Hoff of the Comanche Milling Co.

Economy is but one of many advantages to be gained through their use. The cardboard feeder is so inexpensive that every poultry raiser can now have sufficient feeding space. Poultry authorities attribute many troubles to insufficient and improper feeding equipment, particularly during the delicate stage of the first few weeks.

At the end of the season the feeders are destroyed thus making it impossible to carry disease over from year to year. Should sickness enter the flock during the season, the cardboard feeders can be replaced at a small cost. This is more than offset by the trouble and expense the poultry raiser would have in keeping other types of feeders clean and free of disease.

The Comanche Milling Co. are dealers for the Universal Cardboard Chick Feeder which was first brought on the market in 1933 after several years of testing and experimenting. These feeders won the instant approval of poultry authorities and poultry raisers and the demand for them has been so great that millions have been sold in the short time they have been covered by United States and Canadian patents.

This feeder is so constructed that it is almost impossible for small chicks to roost on it and contaminate the feed. Another advantage is fact that it has no hard or rough metal surfaces to injure the chicks.

The Comanche Milling Co. is making a special introductory offer of giving one feeder with each 100 lb. bag of starting mash without additional charge.

J. S. Jackson Dies At Lamkin

John S. Jackson, prominent Lamkin mechanic and operator of a garage at that place, died Sunday night, January 26, from pistol wounds, according to information received here. Mr. Jackson had been in poor health for some time and was dependent over financial affairs. A note to members of his family was left.

Funeral rites were held January 27th at the Lamkin Methodist Church with his pastor, Rev. Bob Thomas of Gustine officiating, assisted by Rev. Len Dalton, principal of the Lamkin High School. Interment was in the Gentry's Mill Cemetery.

Mr. Jackson, 43, was born and reared in this section of Texas. Soon after reaching manhood he was married to Miss Annie May Smiththerman, who with four children, as follows, survive: Emma Lee, Denny, Madeline and Clyde.

Mr. Jackson, a former truck driver for the Gulf Refining Company at Hamilton, had lived in Lamkin for nine years where he took an active part in community affairs. He was known throughout that section of the county as a hard worker and an excellent mechanic.

He was a member and an active worker in the Methodist Church.

Brown Co. Officials To Get Big Salaries

The yearly salary bill of Brown County for officials and their deputies is $37,097.37, according to the schedule of salaries set by the Commissioners Court under the new state salary law, supplanting the old fee system.

Salaries paid for the various offices in Brown County are: County Judge, $2,945.33; Tax Assessor-Collector, $3,500; County Clerk, $3,367.96; Sheriff, $3,287.32; District Clerk, $2,608.96; County Attorney, $2,387.80; County Treasurer, $2,000.00.

The salaries allowed for deputies: County Clerk, four deputies at $5,256 per year; Sheriff, two deputies at $3,059.96; Tax Assessor-Collector, four deputies at $6,942.00; County Judge, secretary at $1,200; District Clerk, part time deputy at $780.

The Brown County salaries are fixed under the new provision of the law doing away with the fee system in counties with more than 25,000 population. Comanche County is not affected.

C. L. Garrett For Congress

Honorable C. L. (Clyde) Garrett of Eastland officially announces that he is in the race for congress, from this, the 17th Congressional District, and that his formal announcement will be made within the near future.

He served Eastland county six years as County Clerk, and is now serving his fourth term as County Judge of Eastland county. Mr. Garrett was engaged in the banking business at one time and also served the City of Eastland as city manager. In 1934 he was elected president of the West Texas County Judges Association, comprising 130 counties.

A. C. Roberts Is Buried At Shiloh

A. C. Roberts, 76, for more than 50 years a well known citizen of Comanche County died Saturday, February 1, following several years of illness. Interment was in the Shiloh Cemetery with Rev. Sterling Isham officiating. Pallbearers were Tom Boone, Emmett Long, Jack Stephens, Paul Brewer, Verdo Ferguson, and George Masters.

Alexander Cleveland Roberts was born in Mississippi June 2, 1859, being the son of Lewis and Nancy Ann Roberts. He moved to Texas when a small boy, settling first with his parents in Beasque County near Meridian and later moving to Comanche County where he grew to manhood in the Shiloh community.

He was first married to Miss Exie Harris, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harris and sister of A. S. Harris of Comanche. She died eleven years later. Five children were born to them, the eldest of whom, W. C. Roberts, died in Colorado about 15 years ago. Those surviving are Mrs. J. B. Hunter of Shiloh, J. C. Roberts of Comanche, Harris Roberts of Henderson and Mrs. E. M. Farmer of Comanche.

In 1904 Mr. Roberts was married to Miss Ida Farmer at Board Church. She and two children, Mrs. Jim Lake of Comanche and Mrs. Hollis Auvenshine of Dickens, survive.

Mr. Roberts was a successful farmer and for a while also was a dealer in real estate.

He was a member of the Baptist Church.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NEWS

The Workers' Council consisting of all the officers and leaders of our church held its monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, in the absence of the President, Mrs.
J. B. Alcorn, Mrs. Elbert Stewart was appointed to the chair-and most efficiently handled the business of the evening. After a brief devotional on the power of the Bible reports were given from the various church and Sunday School departments which showed a most encouraging growth and plans were made for the ensuing month's work. The Council is most encouraged by the splendid spirit being shown by the Business Woman's Circle of the Auxiliary, under the leadership of Miss Mary Hutchison. Miss Minnie Cunningham was elected as the teacher of the "Timothean Bible Class" of Adult Young People which has recently been organized. And many constructive plans were formulated for the carrying of the church work.

The Timothean Class which Mrs. Hazel has been teaching has been divided to meet a recognized need for a class intended to be strictly for the boys and girls of high school age. Miss Minnie Cunningham will take over the Timothean Bible Class and Mrs. Hazel has been appointed to form and organize this new class limited to Young People of High School age. We cordially invite any of our community young people of high school age to join this newly formed class.

Following a splendid concert of sacred music by the Proctor
High School Violin Class, Rev.
Hazel preached at Proctor Sunday evening using for his subject,
"Are We Crucifying the Invisible Christ Today?" Rev. Hazel conducts services at Proctor regularly the first Sunday evening of each month.

On Monday evening the Business Women's Circle met at the church on a bitter cold evening with an attendance of eight. Mary Hutchison, chairman of this Circle called the meeting to order following which the pastor brought the first of a series of short lectures on "The Organization, Plan and Purpose of our Women's Work." This series will continue each Monday evening during the month of February. Unusual interest is being shown by this fine group of younger women and they are one of the strongest units in our church organization. Miss Ruth James will lead devotional at the next meeting.

The pastor will preach the second of the sermon series on some pictures of God at the 11
a. m. service. This Sunday. God is Like That—A Judge. Subject
"Higher Accounting." At the evening service he will continue the sermons on character studies of the Apostles. This Sunday evening, Sermon Subject: "Thomas, The Man of Moods."

The Deacons, the past week, hired "Pug" McMillan as the church janitor and henceforth our members may feel assured of finding the church comfortably warm for each service. Our new janitor will see that the church fires are lighted well in advance of the service.

We have just received a truck load of sweeps and middle burs-
ers.—Kilpatrick's Hardware Store

HARMONY METHODIST

We are expecting to meet with every member of old Harmony Church next Sunday. Why not?
If you have got "out of the habit," stop, look and listen, and then resolve to break that bad
"habit" with the good resolution of coming to church. You will feel better, and life will have more charms for you. I believe you will enjoy better health.
Some Methodist seem to rave good health six days out of the week, but have a habit of getting sick on Saturday night or Sunday morning. Brother, you need to take the "Church Cure." Come on to church next Sunday and get your medicine. Hear your pastor, he has a message for you at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday School at 10 a. m.

Let every officer and teacher be present and on time, ready to go, promptly at 10 o'clock. An invitation is given to everybody to attend these services. Come early in order to get a seat.
—George G. Smith, Minister.

DUDLEY BROS.

COMANCHE GAIL—TOM—ELTOS TEXAS

Pretty Girl Offers To Join Shovel Gang

Eighteen-year-old Patricia Kelly, petite, blond, and easy to look at, recently introduced herself at Detroit headquarters of the Works Progress Administration by demanding a job as foreman of a pick and shovel gang.

She was within her rights, too. Under the rules, one member of a family has a right to take the place of another who has been called to work and is ill.

"Here is an order, calling father to work," she said. "He can't come. He is going to the hospital. Mother is in the hospital now and I have two brothers and a sister to look out for. I read in the paper that one member of a family could substitute for another in WPA work. Let me have my dad's place."

"As foreman of a pick and shovel gang working in the street," gasped the official.

The girl nodded, suppressing her tears, her handkerchief tightly knotted in her hand.

"If you don't want to make me a foreman," she suggested, "just give me a shovel."

"What experience have you ever had with a shovel?" asked the official quizzically.

Patricia was not in a mood for joking.

"I've often shoveled coal into our furnace," she insisted.

"You had better go home and wait for an opening in a woman's project," the official advised.

"I need work now," the girl protested, "and I believe that I am entitled to it under your rules."

"Since you insist," admitted the official, "I'll have to talk this over with somebody."

The official conference brought Mrs. Cecil R. Chittenden, Michigan State Director of Federal Writers' Projects, on the scene.

One glance from Patricia's blue eyes, and she capitulated.

"I bet she can do more than shovel coal into a furnace," Mrs. Chittenden ventured.

Yes, Patricia could. She was a graduate of Fordson High School and had often contributed to the "Tower Tribune," the school publication. Furthermore, she was a very good typist.

"Would you just as soon pound a typewriter for me as use a pick and shovel in the street?" asked the State Director.

"I'd rather," the visitor agreed.

"Then, I have a job for you," announced Mrs. Chittenden.

Patricia was overjoyed.

"Now, I can bring my mother home and see that my father gets hospital treatment," she declared after the details of her employment had been fixed up.

Patricia may not write original articles for the American Guide, the Government's for-becoming five volume travel handbook, but she will have an important part in preparing the perfected copy of the writers after the state headquarters editors have made their corrections.

The Kelly family lives at 7319 Neckel Avenue in Dearborn, near Detroit. Mrs. Kelly is suffering from a serious illness and has been receiving treatment at the Henry Ford Hospital. Edward Kelly, the father, who has been out of work three years, has a stomach malady. The children in the family beside Patricia are William, 16; Robert, 14, and Betty Lou, 16.

De Leon

Mr. and Mrs. W. Reed of Roby were here Tuesday last week.

Mrs. C. L. Pittman returned last week from a visit to her daughter at Gould, Okla.

Miss Bernice Kiker spent part of last week in Comanche with her father, C. A. Kiker.

Frederick G. Harmon, University of Texas law student, visited his parents here between terms.

Proctor FFA Gives Review of 1936 Plans

Members of the Proctor F. F. A. Chapter have set up their program of work for the year to supplement their vocational agriculture program of instruction and supervised farm program.

Objectives in their program are in line with the State and District program of Future Farmers with additional objectives as the local Chapter wants to carry out.

The objectives are worked out on the basis of the "purpose" of the Future Farmers of America, and include:

1. Development of farm leadership.

2. Strengthening the confidence of farm boys in themselves and what they are doing.

3. Creating more interest in the intelligent choice of farming occupations.

4. Creating and nurturing a love for country life.

5. Encouraging co-operative effort.

6. Promote thrift.

7. Promoting and improving scholarship.

8. Encouraging organized recreational activities and advancing the cause of Vocational Agriculture in High Schools.

The Chapter program for 1935-36 includes the following 20 objectives:

1. Keep money in the Treasury all the time.

2. Go on annual fishing trip.

3. Members attend Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth.

4. Hold a father and son banquet in January.

5. 92 percent of members pay their F. F. A. dues.

6. Enter teams in District contest.

7. Promote an all high school party.

8. Enter teams in State contests.

9. Keep scrap book on all publicity.

10. Train members in parliamentary procedure.

11. Enter public speaking contest.

12. Officers attend three officers training schools.

13. Help government agencies in putting over AAA and Soil Conservation service program.

14. 50 per cent of last year's Greenhands raised to the degree of Future Farmer.

15. Send two delegates to the State Convention.

16. Two per cent of Future Farmers raise to Lone Star Farmer degree.

17. Each officer win certificate of merit in parliamentary procedure.

18. Reporter write news item each week.

19. Make repairs on home buildings.

20. Each officer own an F. F. A. Manual.

Officers of the Proctor Chapter are: President, Winston Miller; Vice-President, Ovid Harris; Reporter, John H. Foley; Treasurer, Ray Carrigan; Secretary, Noble Laminack; Historian, Cecil Houck; Farm Watch Dog, Wynne Ellis; Parliamentarian, Hirm McKelvey; Advisor, W. J. Bush.

Mrs. J. D. Allen Buried At Newburg

Funeral rites for Mrs. J. D. Allen of the Tater Hill Mountain community who died in a Brownwood hospital January 29th, were held at Newburg last Friday with Rev. Gordon Barrett officiating.

Mrs. Allen, who was Minnie Lee Tate before her marriage to J. D. Allen August 6, 1910, was reared in Comanche County.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by two step-children, Coleman and Clyde Allen of Arizona, five sisters and three brothers, and many other relatives.

She was a member of the Baptist Church.

New Cardboard Feeders Popular

Afford Economical and Sanitary Method of Feeding Chicks

What has formerly been a heavy expense to poultry raisers, the providing of proper feeding equipment, is now partially overcome through the use of cardboard feeders for chicks during the first few weeks, according to Mr. Hoff of the Comanche Milling Co.

Economy is but one of many advantages to be gained through their use. The cardboard feeder is so inexpensive that every poultry raiser can now have sufficient feeding space. Poultry authorities attribute many troubles to insufficient and improper feeding equipment, particularly during the delicate stage of the first few weeks.

At the end of the season the feeders are destroyed thus making it impossible to carry disease over from year to year. Should sickness enter the flock during the season, the cardboard feeders can be replaced at a small cost. This is more than offset by the trouble and expense the poultry raiser would have in keeping other types of feeders clean and free of disease.

The Comanche Milling Co. are dealers for the Universal Cardboard Chick Feeder which was first brought on the market in 1933 after several years of testing and experimenting. These feeders won the instant approval of poultry authorities and poultry raisers and the demand for them has been so great that millions have been sold in the short time they have been offered to the public. They are covered by United States and Canadian patents.

This feeder is so constructed that it is almost impossible for small chicks to roost on it and contaminate the feed. Another advantage is fact that it has no hard or rough metal surfaces to injure the chicks.

The Comanche Milling Co. is making a special introductory offer of giving one feeder with each 100 lb. bag of starting mash without additional charge.

J. S. Jackson Dies At Lamkin

John S. Jackson, prominent Lamkin mechanic and operator of a garage at that place, died Sunday night, January 26 from pistol wounds, according to information received here. Mr. Jackson had been in poor health for some time and was despondent over financial affairs. A note to members of his family was left.

Funeral rites were held January 27th at the Lamkin Methodist Church with his pastor, Rev. Bob Thomas of Gustine officiating, assisted by Rev. Len Dalton, principal of the Lamkin High School. Interment was in the Gentry's Mill Cemetery.

Mr. Jackson, 43, was born and reared in this section of Texas. Soon after reaching manhood he was married to Miss Annie May Smitherman, who with four children, as follows, survive: Emma Lee, Dandy, Madeline and Clyde.

Mr. Jackson, a former truck driver for the Gulf Refining Company at Hamilton, had lived in Lamkin for nine years where he took an active part in community affairs. He was known throughout that section of the county as a hard worker and an excellent mechanic.

He was a member and an active worker in the Methodist Church.

Brown Co. Officials To Get Big Salaries

The yearly salary bill of Brown County for officials and their deputies is $37,097.37, according to the schedule of salaries set by the Commissioners Court under the new state salary law, supplanting the old fee system.

Salaries paid for the various offices in Brown County are: County Judge, $2,945.33; Tax Assessor-Collector, $3,500; County Clerk, $3,367.96; Sheriff, $3,287.32; District Clerk, $2,608.96; County Attorney, $2,387.80; County Treasurer, $2,000.00.

The salaries allowed for deputies: County Clerk, four deputies at $5.256 per year; Sheriff, two deputies at $3,059.96; Tax Assessor-Collector, four deputies at $6,942.00; County Judge, secretary at $1,200; District Clerk, part time deputy at $780.

The Brown County salaries are fixed under the new provision of the law doing away with the fee system in counties with more than 25,000 population. Comanche County is not affected.

C. L. Garrett For Congress

Honorable C. L. (Clyde) Garrett of Eastland officially announces that he is in the race for congress, from this, the 17th Congressional District, and that his formal announcement will be made within the near future.

He served Eastland county six years as County Clerk, and is now serving his fourth term as County Judge of Eastland county. Mr. Garrett was engaged in the banking business at one time and also served the City of Eastland as city manager. In 1934 he was elected president of the West Texas County Judges Association, comprising 130 counties.

A. C. Roberts Is Buried At Shiloh

A. C. Roberts, 76, for more than 50 years a well known citizen of Comanche County died Saturday, February 1, following several years of illness. Interment was in the Shiloh Cemetery with Rev. Sterling Isham officiating. Pallbearers were Tom Beene, Emmett Long, Jack Stephens, Paul Brewer, Verdo Ferguson, and George Masters.

Alexander Cleveland Roberts was born in Mississippi June 2, 1859, being the son of Lewis and Nancy Ann Roberts. He moved to Texas when a small boy, settling first with his parents in Beasque County near Meridian and later moving to Comanche County where he grew to manhood in the Shiloh community.

He was first married to Miss Edie Harris, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harris and sister of A. S. Harris of Comanche. She died eleven years later. Five children were born to them, the eldest of whom, W. C. Roberts, died in Colorado about 15 years ago. Those surviving are Mrs. J. B. Hunter of Shiloh, J. C. Roberts of Comanche, Harris Roberts of Henderson and Mrs. B. M. Farmer of Comanche.

In 1904 Mr. Roberts was married to Miss Ida Farmer at Board Church. She and two children, Mrs. Jim Lake of Comanche and Mrs. Hollis Auvenshine of Dickens, survive.

Mr. Roberts was a successful farmer and for a while also was a dealer in real estate.

He was a member of the Baptist Church.

Lamkin

Friends of Lamkin and community were greatly shocked to learn of the tragic death of J. S. Jackson, 44, garage man and highly respected citizen of Lamkin, which occurred 30 minutes after the self-inflicted pistol shot wounds in his head, on the night of January 26th. Mr. Jackson left a short note, but gave no reason for taking his own life. His family were all at home at the time of the tragedy, and had just gone to bed. Funeral rites were held by Rev. Thomas, and Elder Len Dalton on Monday afternoon, with burial in Gentry's Mill Cemetery. He is survived by his widow, two daughters, Miss Emma Lee and Miss Madeline, and two sons, Denney and Clyde Burrow Jackson.

This portion of the county was visited by another mantle of snow last Wednesday night, Jan. 29th.

E. A. Brookshire, 65, a long time resident of Comanche County, residing four miles east of Lamkin, died Friday night in a Fort Worth hospital. Funeral services were conducted at the Lamkin Methodist Church by Elder Len Dalton Sunday afternoon. Interment was in Gentry's Mill Cemetery. He is survived by his widow, 6 sons and 1 daughter.

On Jan. 21, Miss Dora George became the bride of Huey Laird. Both the bride and groom are of Lamkin and Miss George was a student in Lamkin High School at the time of her marriage. The ceremony was solemnized by Elder A. C. Huff at his home.

Mrs. Perry Moring has been receiving treatment in a Hamilton hospital.

Mrs. Huey Laird was honored with a surprise shower last Tuesday night.

Miss Verna Lee Burt has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. M. A. Edwards of Santa Anna.

Nervous, Weak Woman
Soon All Right

"I had regular shaking spells from nervousness," writes Mrs. Cora Sanders, of Paragould, Ark. "I was all run-down and cramped at my time until I would have to go to bed. After my first bottle of Cardui, I was better. I kept taking Cardui and soon I was all right. The shaking quill and I did not cramp. I felt worlds better. I gave Cardui to my daughter who was in about the same condition and she was soon all right."

make you Miserable?

Too much food, or the wrong kind of food, too much smoking, too much beer, make your body over-acid. Then you have distress after eating, gas on stomach, heartburn, sour stomach. ALKA-SELTZER relieves these troubles promptly, effectively.

Use Alka-Seltzer for Headache, Colds, Fatigue, "Morning After Feeling," Muscular, Sciatic and Rheumatic Pains.

Alka-Seltzer makes a sparkling alkaline drink. As it contains an analgesic (Acetyl-Salicylate) it first relieves the pain of everyday ailments and then by restoring the alkaline balance corrects the cause when due to excess acid.

Alka-Seltzer tastes like carbonated mineral spring water—works like magic. Contains no dangerous drugs... does not depress the heart... is not laxative. Get a drink at your Drug Store Soda Fountain. Keep a package in your home medicine cabinet.

POLITICAL NOTICE

Comanche County Townsend Club in mass meeting offer resolution: Whereas, be it resolved that the Comanche Townsend Club endorse and pledge their support to Hon. F. O. Jaye as a candidate to the Democratic Primary, to be elected to represent this people of our 17th Congressional District.

Mr. Jaye, a very able attorney, and thoroughly acquainted with the Townsend O. A. R. P. plan, will vote for and cause the McGroarty bill H. R. 7154, to become the law of our land. He understands and supports the 2 percent transaction tax to create our circulation to solve our problems, such as to retire the aged in comfort, the unemployment, and supply a sufficient buying power to restore prosperity by the 2 percent transaction on the fair dollar. Jaye believes in a government of the people, for the people, and by the people. He agrees with the Dr. F. E. Townsend and says $200.00 per month is not too much to create a revolving fund; Does not think this transaction tax will bankrupt the government, because the tax is on transaction and not a government debt. And, we hereby offer said resolution asking the 17th Congressional District for their support to the Hon. Fred Jaye, to be elected to our Congress in Nov. 1936.

Passed in mass meeting Feb. 3rd, 1936 by Comanche County Townsend Club.

SYMPTOMS

In November, 1927, Mollie W. Mahan of Riverside, Ill., started to take Dr. Fugate's Prescription. Read these excerpts from her letters:

Dec. 1, 1927: "The night before I received Dr. Fugate's Prescription I came so near dying I can't explain how I ever lived through it. For the past two years I had not been able to draw a deep full breath without a terrible rattle in my throat. I had coughed until I thought I would die. I had taken doses in my arms until they made me so sick I had to stop. After the first two or three days of taking Dr. Fugate's Prescription I began to feel much better. Today I can breathe deep full breaths without a sign of rattle or cough."

October 1, 1934, she wrote: "Several years have passed since I took Dr. Fugate's Prescription and no sign of return of Asthma. I have a seven-room house, do all my own work and I am still thanking God for Dr. Fugate's Prescription."

If you suffer from bronchial asthma symptoms, you owe it to yourself and family to try the prescription that has brought welcome relief to thousands. Get a bottle from your druggist today.

The Watts Family Is Introduced

A new "family" of quadruplets known as the Watts Family has just been announced by the Texas Power & Light Company. W. P. Murphy, district manager for the company, beamed with fatherly pride this morning as he pronounced the condition of the quadruplets as excellent.

"In fact," Mr. Murphy commented, "the Watts Family is already at work, serving our residential customers in a way that will soon make them even more popular than the Dionne quintuplets, especially with housewives."

The "family" name, Watts, according to Mr. Murphy is derived from the term "watt" which is a unit of measurement of electric energy. The given names of the Watts quadruplets are Glow, Hotsy, Coolsy and Tidy. "It is not quite fair to the Watts Family," Mr. Murphy said, "because they are not all of the same age. Glow Watts more than 50 years old, and the members of the 'family' are from 15 to 25 years younger than Glow."

An interesting bit of history about each member of the Watts Family is given in a Watts Family Coloring Book which the Texas Power & Light Company is giving free to those who call for them at their offices.

When questioned as to how people could identify the various members of the Watts Family in their homes, Mr. Murphy laid down this simple method:

"Glow Watts does all the lighting, and operates the radio; Hotsy Watts works all cooking and heating appliances; Coolsy Watts takes care of home cooking, refrigeration, and air conditioning; and Tidy Watts holds sway over the laundry, the vacuum cleaner, and keeps time by the electric clock."

The Watts Family will give news and information about various types of residential electric service; counsel and suggestions about better ways of using electric energy, in a series of advertisements which will appear from time to time in this newspaper.

ENLIST THE TONGUE

A Two Minute Sermon by William J. Hazel, Pastor of the Local Presbyterian Church.

Someone has said that talk is cheap. Words however are powerful things. It is also one of the most extensive things in the world. It doesn't take long to talk your neighbor out of his good reputation. I have known people who could talk their friends into believing something that was not true. I have even known of talking people into buying "Gold Bricks." Men have been talked into selling their immortal soul. Yes, talk has ruined many happy homes, blasted a man's hopes and sent him on the road to perdition. Be careful how you sling dynamite of your tongue. The scriptures say, "The tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison." Jesus said, "For every idle word that men shall speak they shall give an accounting thereof in the day of judgment." Poison lurks in the tongue when let run riot. We are in a war between good and evil and much depends on how we talk.

And yet this power of speech can be and is a great blessing. "Words fitly spoken are like apples of gold in a network of silver." Nothing has yet been invented to take the place of a personal talk in the redemption of man. Go to your friend and talk to him about the saving grace of Jesus Christ. There is power in that kind of talk. Words thus spoken in due season are apples of gold in a filigree of silver, is the beautiful picture given in the Bible of such words.

In your friend burdened with the depressing loads of life, broken hearted because of a death in his family? Have you gone to him with words fitly spoken so that your friend will see the apples of gold in a netting of silver?

Is your friend, perhaps, down in the toils of sin, living a beclouded life with only a dim glimpse of God's love, and the purpose of living? Go carry the apples of gold to that friend in a basket of golden apples of sympathy. Are you yourself shrouded in the encircling gloom, plodding in the mire and trough of disappointment, or living in the fog far away from the love of God? Go talk it over with Jesus, carry to him your baskets of words fitly chosen, spoken in prayer. You cannot write your prayer and mail it to him. The postoffice cannot deliver it. You must talk to Him yourself, if you would find the apples of gold in your basket of life.

SPECIAL SERVICES AT M. E. CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY

The Rippeteo Quartette will sing at the Methodist Church next Sunday evening. Services will begin promptly at seven o'clock. Come early so you will be sure not to miss any of the program.

We appreciated the good attendance last Sunday. We were quite a bit above the mark of a year ago in our attendance in the Church School. Let's increase it for next Sunday. We now have a class for every age and you will enjoy being within our classes. Miss Agnes Graham is now giving a special course in Bible Study in her class each Sunday morning. You would enjoy these lectures very much.

Our Young Peoples' Work is moving on in a nice way. They are having a social hour in the church basement last Thursday evening. 39 were present with 6 visitors from the De Leon Young Peoples' Group. Two of the young men from De Leon told of their trip to the Young Peoples' Convention in Memphis, Tennessee, last month, which was of great interest to our group. If you are a young person and not in a young peoples organization we would be glad to have you with us next Sunday evening.

"Let us meet you in church next Sunday."

Chas. H. Cole, Minister.

Pottsville Oil Test Spudded In On T. K. Rea Tract

The big barbecue supper of last night with all the complements served on the location of the Seaboard Oil Corporation T. K. Rea Heirs No. 1 test well Monday night, Jan. 20th, was a jubilation expression of the sanguine spirit of the people of that section.

Mack Burks, Milton and Norman Rea sponsored the celebration and prepared the barbecue, reported to have been the most delicious meat that ever satisfied the appetites of those composing the company assembled.

The purpose of the occasion was to celebrate the beginning of activities in spudding in and beginning the actual drilling of the test well, and to give opportunity for the people of that section and of the town of Hamilton to get acquainted with the drilling contractors, Messrs Gallagher and Lawson, of Cisco, and the men composing the four towers of workmen on the crew. The extreme cold and ice and snow that still lay on the ground deterred the going spirit of many Hamilton folk, and also kept indoors many others in the adjacent regions of the well location. However, quite a number of people went from Hamilton, among them being Hon. James M. Rolding, Fr. and Mrs. Brents Witt, Fr. and Mrs. Otto N. Rea, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Snodgrass, Joe Cleveland, Avery Clemmer, Otto Reinert and possibly others.

Two big wood campfires were blazing high, rendering the scene picturesque and comfortably warm. Following supper, Mr. Rolding was introduced as the chief speaker of the evening. He voiced confidence of the people in the enterprise, and bespoke the friendly and helpful co-operation of the entire citizenship of Hamilton and in the region of the test well in carrying on the work to a successful finish. He also expressed the appreciation of every one present for the hospitality of the Messrs Burks and Rea, which afforded the opportunity to make the acquaintance of the men who would labor diligently and conscientiously to bring in a field of "Black Gold" in that section of territory, where so many unmistakable evidences of oil and gas have been found from year to year in the past eighteen cycles.

Driller Heater also addressed the company in expression of the appreciation of the crew for the friendliness and co-operation signified in the hearty celebration staged by the people.

The location of the Seaboard Oil Corporation T. K. Rea Heirs No. 1 test is three miles northwest of Pottsville on the David Cook survey. Shallow wells on the lands of the T. K. Rea estate have shown considerable flow of natural gas in a number of instances in past years, but the present well will be the first bonafide test for oil made in that region. The people are sanguine of results, and the equipment in operation and drillers give evidence that the well will go down in record time.

Aubrey Magness Is Killed In Accident

Funeral services for Aubrey Magness, former Comanche High School football star, who was killed in a highway accident near Breckenridge Sunday night, were conducted at the Comanche Church of Christ Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 after preliminary services had been held at Breckenridge Tuesday morning.

Interment was in the Oakwood Cemetery here.

Aubrey, who was born in Comanche, left here in 1928 to become a football star at Breckenridge when the family moved to that city.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. T. M. Magness of Breckenridge, and the following brothers and sisters: Bertis Magness of Breckenridge, Peaves Magness of Comanche, Boyce Magness of Washington State University, Maurice Magness of Los Angeles, California, and James, Vada, Dena, Zena and Wanda Magness of Breckenridge.

The following account of his death is from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, under a Breckenridge date-line:

Aubrey Magness, legend of West Texas High School football and star of the State schoolboy championship game in 1929, and Howard Poe, another Breckenridge youth, died in a highway accident near here Sunday night.

Magness led the Breckenridge team in the 0-0 championship game with Fort Arthur played at Waco in 1929 on a snow-swept gridiron.

The two youths were riding on a motorcycle that was in a collision with a machine driven by O. A. Hess.

Witnesses said an explosion occurred when the motorcycle and automobile crashed, hurling Magness several feet from the wreckage. Persons who rushed to the scene did not know Poe was trapped beneath the wreckage until he had burned to death.

Magness was rushed to a Graham hospital but died two hours later. Hess was slightly injured.

All forms of competitive athletics have been abolished at the Jacksonville Baptist Junior College.

These People Made Farming Pay In 1935

Many farmers made a profit above living expenses on the farm last year according to the Extension Department of A. & M. College which this week mailed the Comanche Chief several short articles showing how this was done in different parts of the state.

The articles follow:

JEFFERSON—A crop yield of 247 bushels on seven acres of corn, three and one-half bales of black-eyed peas from four acres, and 43 bushels of field peas grown in with the corn has convinced Volney Pace of Marion county of the value of a five-year soil building program.

Eight years ago Pace entered an agreement with the county agricultural agent to terrace all the rolling land on his farm and to follow a strict system of crop rotation, planting his corn in wide rows with cow-peas between the rows. Much of the tillable land on the farm has been in cultivation from 60 to 75 years and in the outset was greatly depleted in soil fertility.

WOODVILLE—Ten tons of hay were harvested from six acres of soybeans this year by W. F. Hatton of Tyler county, according to M. S. Hyde, county agricultural agent. One acre was left for hogs and for seed. Hatton says the best acre he raised was planted the first week in July after an early tomato crop. He intends to plant 25 acres to soy beans in 1936.

WELLINGTON—The construction of concrete subdrainage has proved a pleasant and profitable hobby for A. J. Fires and Elbert Blackwood of Collingsworth county who have constructed more than 10,000 feet of tile during recent months. The two boys have their shop in the back yard of the Fires' home and spend the hours after school molding the tile.

The boys were instructed in making the tile by the county agricultural agent, John Stovall, and they estimate that they can make approximately 50 feet of tile an hour. They have sold the tile both in town and in the rural sections.

CLARKSVILLE—An uneven, bare yard has been transformed into a sodded lawn and foundation plantings consisting of waxleaf ligustrum, crepe myrtle, abelia, arbor vitae and other shrubs have been added to the S. C. Stiles home in Red River county during the past year, according to Miss Magene Ray, home demonstration agent. Mrs. Stiles' improvement plan was drawn up in 1934 and the work was planned for two years.

All work planned for the past year has been completed. The front fence has been removed, the side fences set back 10 feet on the west side and 24 feet on the east side, and the back fence removed. A stepping stone walk has been made in front and the front steps repaired. Front and east side foundation plantings have been made, a rose garden started and the house painted.

GEORGE WEST—A profit of $171.99 was made over a period of 10 months by Mrs. John Dunn, Live Oak county poultry demonstrator, from her flock of 270 white leghorn hens, according to her report to Miss Linda Sears, home demonstration agent.

Mrs. Dunn has added to her poultry equipment this year a new concrete brooder house and a cellar for her incubator. She has also added sanitary drinking fountains and feeding troughs and a concrete floor to her poultry house.

SAN ANTONIO—A 4-H pantry containing 1,919 containers and valued at $216.94 has been prepared by Mrs. Gene Tunin of the Somerset Home Demonstration Club in Bexar county, according to Miss Marie Stiles, home demonstration agent. There are only four in Mrs. Tunin's family, but she enjoys dividing with the married children.

Her pantry contains leafy vegetables, starch, vegetables, tomatoes, fruits, sweet and sour pickles, meats, preserves, jelly, and honey.

50th Anniversary of Wedding Is Observed By Couple at Sidney

The fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stailey was celebrated at their home two miles south of Sidney, Tuesday, February 4. Mr. and Mrs. Stailey's nine children, other relatives and a number of friends were present for the celebration.

The couple was married at the home of Mrs. Stailey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Wells, in the Sidney community February 4, 1886. Their marriage license was issued by J. D. Bonner, county clerk at that time, who still resides at Comanche. Three persons who attended the ceremony were present for the celebration Tuesday. They were: Claude Cox of Comanche, Alvie Wells of Wichita Falls and W. C. Ferrill of Sidney.

In addition to the nine children, all of whom are married, Mr. and Mrs. Stailey have 12 grandchildren and three step-grandchildren. There has never been a death in the immediate family. Mr. and Mrs. Stailey have lived continuously in the Sidney community since their marriage, except for one year which was spent at Sipe Springs, in the same county.

Present at Celebration—Children and grandchildren present were: B. C. Stailey and son, Benton, Jr., of Dallas; Mrs. T. V. Austin and children, Audie Lee, Stailey and Bill, of Blanket; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Sherrod of Southland; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cox and daughter, Jo Nell, of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Lusk and children, Bobby, Johnny and Jack, of Sidney; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Taylor of Bradshaw; Mr. and Mrs. Finley Stailey of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Graham and daughter, Joy, of Sidney; Mr. and Mrs. Garland Stailey and daughter, Vera Jean of Sidney.

Other relatives present were: Grady Steele, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Wells and daughter, Molly Jo, of Brownwood; Mrs. W. C. Ferrill of Blanket; Mrs. O. A. Ferrill and son, Jack Weldon, of Blanket; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Claborn, of Okra; Leslie Wells of Merkel; Mrs. Gene Hill, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Claborn, all of Okra. Friends who called during the afternoon were Mrs. J. T. Roberts, Mrs. A. E. Boyd, and Mrs. J. C. Ross of Sidney and Claude Cox of Comanche.

Many lovely gifts were received by the couple during the day. Two large cakes, presented by R. C. Stailey and Mrs. Leslie Sherrod, were cut during the afternoon and served with coffee to the guests.

Sketch of the Late W. F. Gilbreath

The following is a sketch of the life of W. F. Gilbreath, the article being written by a close relative:

W. F. Gilbreath, 81 years, 7 months, 10 days of age, one of Frath County's pioneer citizens died at his home on Restless Creek in the Edna Hill community Jan. 5, 6:30 p. m., 1936. He was in good health until a few minutes before he passed away.

Funeral services were held in the home for his invalid wife and relatives, also a short service was conducted at the P. W. Lee Cemetery by Rev. Bradford of Dublin. Pallbearers were his grandsons, Collin and J. D. Gilbreath of Midland, Jim Gilbreath Jr., of Eastland, Edward and Lowell Gilbreath of Fort Worth, Wayne and Ed Gilbreath Jr., of Dublin and Maurine Dawkins of Ryan, Okla. Flower girls were the granddaughters.

Mr. Gilbreath was born May 15, 1854 in Pope county, Arkansas and moved with his parents, W. H. and N. L. Gilbreath, to Texas in 1856. On Oct. 10 settled on Restless Creek, the place he owned at death.

He professed faith in Christ as an early age, and united with the Missionary Baptist Church in 1895. He lived a useful life in his home and community until the last.

He was married to Martha Ann Martin Dec. 26, 1881. To this union twelve children were born, nine of whom survive. They are: J. R. Gilbreath, Eastland; Mrs. E. J. Dawkins, Law and Ulmer Gilbreath, Ryan, Okla.; Noah E. Gilbreath, Grand Falls, Texas; Mattie Gilbreath, San Antonio; Ed R. and Will S. Gilbreath, Dublin; Mrs. E. D. Holden, Comanche. He is also survived by thirty-seven grandchildren, most of whom were present at the funeral.

Many friends were present at the funeral from various places in this section and over the state. He was true to his invalid wife till the summons. He had cared for her tenderly the past two years, and was always kind and cheerful to his wife and gave spiritual help to all that came in contact with him. His desire was for God to give him strength to be of service to mankind till the last.

The liquor business in Dallas is thriving, there are 130 licensed package stores, 16 wholesale liquor dealers, 112 beer dealers, and 362 dealers in beer and wine.

Wid Spivey In Race For Sheriff

I take this opportunity of making my formal announcement as a candidate for Sheriff of Comanche County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primaries, and at the outset, I wish to again thank the voters of this county for the splendid support they accorded me in 1934, when I was a candidate for this same office, and at which time I entered the run-off primary.

To the greater part of the people of this county my life history is well known, but to those who do not know me, I will say that I am a farmer, living within a few miles of Comanche, and have been reared in this county.

It is my expectation to see all the voters possible in the county between now and the July primary, but if I should miss anyone it will not be intentional.

Again thanking you for your support in the past, and soliciting your vote and influence in the coming primaries, I am, Sincerely yours, WID SPIVEY

Goodson Rieger For R. R. Commissioner

Dallas, Feb. 5.—Goodson Rieger, who for the past nine years has been deputy supervisor of the Oil and Gas Division of the Texas Railroad commission, stationed at Houston, has announced his candidacy to the commission to succeed Col. E. O. Thompson.

Born in Comanche, Texas, he attended school there and later attended Stamford College in Stamford and T. C. U. at Fort Worth. He has had 18 years experience in oil field work. Because 75 percent of the Railroad Commission's work pertains to oil field matters, Mr. Rieger feels that he is qualified for the place he seeks.

Mr. Rieger will seek the office of Railroad Commissioner on a platform pledging himself to appoint only qualified employees to positions under the commission; to the adjustment of freight rates to offset advantages now held by New Orleans over Texas ports from certain sections of Texas; and to the reorganization of production in Texas oil fields guaranteeing all fields against discrimination.

COMANCHE LADIES AT BROWNWOOD MEETING

The 23rd Division of Texas Highway Beautification Committee met in Brownwood Saturday, Feb. 1. This division is composed of the counties of Stephens, Eastland, Mills, Comanche, Brown, Coleman, San Saba and McCulloch.

The chairman of each county was present and gave reports on the progress of beautification in his respective county.

Mrs. John Reese, chairman of Comanche County, with Park Huntington, Resident Engineer, and Porter McCarroll, Section Foreman of the local highway department, attended the meeting and reported a very enthusiastic session.

This Division has adopted the crepe myrtle as shrub and the State has adopted the morning glory to be planted and used anywhere to its best advantage in beautifying Texas for the Centennial which opens June 1st.

Mrs. Reese is busy getting committees and etc., and work in Comanche County will start as soon as weather permits.

Mrs. Reese will appreciate any assistance and suggestions from the citizens and asks whole-hearted support in making Comanche County one of the cleanest and most attractive counties in Texas, that those who visit our state and county during this year will feel their visit worthwhile.

J. B. Lacy Out For Assessor-Collector

July 25th of this year being the time the voters of this county will choose the county officials for the next two years I am, with this week's Chief making my formal announcement of my application for the office of Assessor-Collector. This will probably be my only published statement. Am kindly asking you for your personal consideration.

Will thank you for every kind word spoken in my behalf. Hoping to see each voter before the July primary, I am, yours very truly, J. B. LACY.

Temple, Texas missed getting Baylor College for Women by $1000 in 1886. Bolton offered $31,000 and the grounds and Temple offered $30,000 and the grounds. Bolton's offer was accepted.

Dr. J. E. Self Dies At De Leon

Dr. J. E. Self, 70, member of the Comanche County School Board, and a prominent physician at De Leon for 32 years, died at a Gorman sanitarium Monday night of last week where he had been taken a few hours earlier after suffering a heart attack at his home in De Leon. He had spent the day before at work in his office.

Funeral services were held at the De Leon Baptist Church with Rev. R. G. Alexander officiating, assisted by Rev. W. T. Hamor of Winters.

Active pall bearers were members of the De Leon High School football team under the direction of H. F. Davis and honorary pall bearers were Dr. George and Dr. Ed Blackwell of Gorman, Dr. A. J. Gray and Dr. J. O. Lane of Comanche, Dr. Gains and Dr. Bryant of Dublin. The attendants of honor were the staff of graduate nurses of the Blackwell Sanitarium of Gorman.

John Edward Self was born in Morgan County, Alabama, March 15, 1866. After reaching young manhood he moved to Arkansas where he was married March 13, 1887 to Miss Alice Young who with five children survive, Mrs. E. R. McClellan of Iraan; Mrs. George W. Rollins of De Leon; Mrs. A. G. Lee of Junction, Mrs. C. V. Sineleton of Seminole and Aubrey Self of De Leon.

Dr. Self studied medicine at Chattanooga and Mobile and practiced for two years in Alabama before locating at De Leon.

Dr. Self was Division Surgeon for the M. K. & T. Railroad and enjoyed a large private practice in the county.

He was a Mason and a Shriner and a member of the Baptist Church.

More About CHURCH CENTENNIAL

of Evangelism that is to sweep the state during 1936. 5. All churches are urged to recognize the state and national holidays during 1936 with emphasis on the spiritual values that have had a vital part in the growth of the state of Texas. Each is to appeal to the citizens to arrest the haughty invader of our times represented by Lawlessness, and Moral Corruption, which will destroy our Christian civilization purchased at so great a sacrifice by our forefathers. There is something for every patriot to do in this "San Jacinto of the Righteous, the Battle of 1936." In the words of the immortal Travis "God is on our side."

GOD SPEAKS

The first weekly scripture and comment follows:

"A new heart also will I give you and a new spirit will I put within you, and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh—I will put my spirit within you and cause you to walk in my statutes and you shall keep my judgments and do them. And you shall dwell in the land I gave to your fathers; and you shall be my people and I will be your God. Then shall ye remember your own evil ways and your doings that were not good and shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. Ezekiel 36:26-28,31.

The greatest need of our time is for a return of profound sense of sin and consciousness of our responsibility in this republic. The churches of Texas are planning such a program for the Centennial year that we may all have a "new heart," a heart which loathes the evil ways of our times, our coldness of heart, our indifference, our lack of faith and the crime and sin that results therefrom.
